Changing-Your-Address Checklist

With thoughtful planning, your move does not have to feel overwhelming. This checklist provides you with a list of service providers you will likely need to notify of your change of address.

Changing your address is important to avoid:

- Service lapses
- Past due accounts
- Identity theft

The United States Post Office offers a forwarding service but your mail may be delayed. The following checklist will help ensure you are considering the majority of service providers that will need to have your new address.

Pay attention to incoming mail to make sure you are not overlooking any organizations.
